

Local and Personal

G. A. Moore is painting his saloon.

H. K. Grubbs is trying his hand at farming.

Mrs. Dr. Pring is visiting her mother at Wagon Mound for a few days.

Jesse Pate has been in the city several days. He is in business at Raton.

Mrs. E. M. McCargar and children left Wednesday morning for their home in Peoria, Ill.

B. F. Brock reports a new boy at his place. He is in from the ranch and employed at A. B. Simpson's store.

M. B. Goldenberg is going to feed 5000 head of sheep in Quay county this fall. He has been shipping to Kansas heretofore.

G. W. Butterfield has returned to Lawton, Okla. He sold his business house to Sam Aber and his second hand store to Anderson.

Street & Baker unloaded several wagons of cinders in front of the stable this week in order to get rid of mud and water which has been a nuisance since the rains.

When in need of anything in the printing line, such as wedding cards, invitations, briefs, call on the Tucumcari Printing Company, where all work is guaranteed.

W. A. Jackson returned last week from a week's trip around the country looking for marketable steers. He reports few to be had at prices favorable to buyers.

S. C. Pandolfo, the life insurance writer, was here several days from El Paso. Mrs. Pandolfo has been in this city some time visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Wayne.

E. V. Gallegos, U. S. Commissioner at Isidor, Guadalupe county, brother of N. V. Gallegos, of this city, was a business visitor, Monday. He was here after a well drill which he took to his Guadalupe ranches.

Frank Johnston, the Bell Ranch cowboy, was in town several days this week for treatment for an ugly wound in the arm, which was inflicted by a gore from a vicious cow. He returned to the ranch Friday very much improved.

DIED—Mrs. M. Tremble, Monday, of pneumonia. She was teacher of the Lloyd Valley school, 14 miles from town. She was a widow and leaves two small children. O. M. Reynolds made up money among citizens here Monday to defray the expenses of the burial.

Quinine at 50 cents an Oz. at the Pioneer Drug Store. 4 5tf

Screen Doors at Jackson-Gailbath-Foxworth Co. 24tf

John Bristow was a visitor from Quay, this week.

John Briscoe shipped 300 head of cattle here last week. He sold to a Texico buyer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Roy Welch, of Puerto, were Tucumcari visitors, Wednesday.

Messrs. Burton and White, of Green Valley, were in town this week for lumber and supplies.

Attorney H. L. Boone returned Wednesday from Alamogordo, where he has been on professional business.

Miss Bessie Moore, daughter of Dr. Moore, came in Wednesday from Thomas, Okla., the doctor meeting her at Dalhart.

Miss Lillie Muirhead, sister of T. A. Muirhead, has returned home to Temple, Texas, after a month's visit with Mr. Muirhead and family.

W. R. Brown came in last week in the storm from Olestee, Okla., bringing his teams and farming implements overland. He had an interesting time enroute.

Milton Hames, of Polomas, N. M., was in the city a day or two. He tells us that his father, mother and sister have begun improving their homes and are planting trees.

Reports come in from Santa Rosalia, Mexico, that our boys who are there for recreation and health are doing well. They are mixing a little duck hunting with the regular routine and it seems to agree with them.

Superintendent of Schools M. Rudolph, was in the city Wednesday, and tells us that he is as busy as he can be creating new school districts. Our annexed territory up the railroad is part of the county requiring his attention.

Fred Walther, the Puerto merchant, informs this paper that his city is soon to have a telephone line to Tucumcari. An auto line is also an anticipation. The new incorporated company is pushing things along in fine shape. Puerto is in a very choice section of Quay county and is going to boom this summer.

Robt. E. Dever and son are opening a real estate office at Endee. They were in town yesterday to take out occupation license. Mr. Dever says their city is improving very rapidly. C. L. Fallwell is opening a general merchandising store, J. T. Wharton, a blacksmith shop and Dick Easley a barber shop. Real estate is also moving, and the demand is going to increase says Mr. Dever.

Donohoo, the county clerk, can give you a few pointers on the stock farming business. He is making something out of hogs.

THE BARGAIN CORNER!

Corset Covers—25 different styles to select from. You are bound to find the kind you like, and the price will suit your purse. Prices range this week from 30c to $1.75 each

White Shirts—20 different styles. If you want the dainty Lace Trimmed patterns, they are here, and if you want the more substantial Embroidery trimmed effects, they are here too. Prices range this week from 85c to $3.85 each

Daintily trimmed Gowns—either with the short or long sleeves. These are the most beautiful patterns we have ever shown, and the prices this week will add to their attraction. Prices range this week from 75c to $3.00 each

Cheaper this Week than you can Buy the Goods and Make Them

Gross Kelly & Co.

Sole Agents for W. L. Douglas Shoes

J. B. COLVIN

Contractor and Builder

Plans and Specifications furnished on application

Go to —

The Lobby Saloon

FOR THE BEST
Wines, Liquors and Cigars
Woodward County Whiskey.
COURTEOUS TREATMENT.
J. PACE & Co., Props.

Kabrich & Mitchell, Props

We have seed oats and Speltz Macaroni wheat and barley. Have a car of maize, kaffir corn, millet, broom corn and in fact all kinds of field seed bought. They will be on in due season.
All kind of feed stuff constantly on hand.